2010 SUMMER CAMP JOB OPPORTUNITIES

The Stevens Point Area YMCA Summer Camp Programs offer a variety of opportunities for campers ages 5-17.

Camp Glacier Hollow Programs include: 7 weeks of week-long Resident Camps - Nature Quest Camps (coed-ages 8-14), Camp Wise Spirits (girls-ages 8-14), Timbertop Camp for Children with Learning Disabilities (coed-ages 9-13), and 3 Night Beginning Adventurers (coed ages 7-10); 12 weeks of Traditional Day Camp (coed-ages 7-13); 4 weeks of Teen and Adult Backpacking, Canoeing, and Rock Climbing Trips; a Counselors In Training program; and other general summer programs and activities. Camp is located 14 miles east of Stevens Point on crystal clear spring-fed Lake Elaine. Over 100 acres of mixed forest, glacial ridges and hollows makes it an ideal setting for environmental education teaching and learning. Camp serves up to 100 total campers per week and runs from June 1 – August 31.

YMCA Great Escape Day Camp is for youth ages 5-10. Children in Summer Great Escape have home rooms at the Stevens Point Area YMCA and enjoy a fun filled summer of theme weeks and both indoor and outdoor activities include swimming, arts & crafts, humanities, science labs, fields trips and much more! This program serves up to 40 campers per week from June 1 - August 31.

Sports Day Camp is for youth ages 6-12. Children in Sports Day Camp enjoy a fun filled summer of sports theme weeks and both indoor and outdoor activities include swimming, arts & crafts, and much more! This program is held at Roosevelt School in Plover and serves up to 40 campers per week from June 1 - August 20.

Specialty Day Camps are for youth ages 8-14 and include week long Horsemanship and Theater Day Camps.
